

A11a You Are the Light of the World, Matthew 5:13-16

Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

When you do something good for someone, it starts a chain reaction. You open the door for Sarah, Sarah opens the door for Carlos, Carlos opens the door for Mohammed. When people have been kind to you, it makes it easier for you to be kind to another person. God wants you to be the light that starts good things. Even if no one opens the door for you, God wants you to open the door for others. He wants you to be the one to carry his light throughout the world.
