

A43 The Last Will Be First, Matthew 20:1-16, Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

God is the ultimate judge of who gets to enter heaven. Do not judge others. Do not say to your friends, that child of God is getting more than I am. I should be receiving that gift, not him. Be thankful for what you receive. Others are just as deserving of God's mercy and kindness. God decides and judges the punishment and the rewards of his children. If you judge yourself always at the top, look out. The last will be first with God.
