

B16 Moneychangers in the Temple, John 2:13-25, Third Sunday in Lent

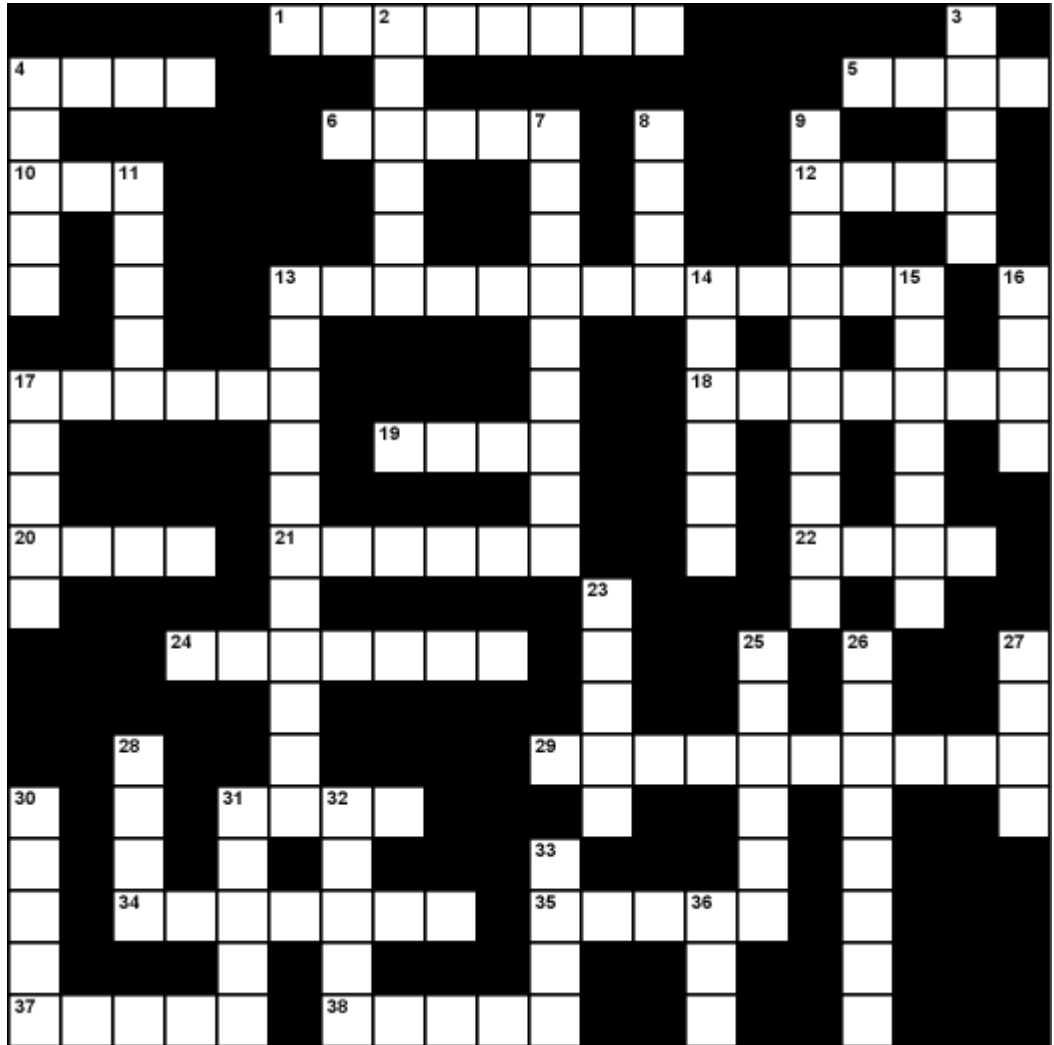

People sold animals and items inside the temple. Jesus got very angry. He knocked over the moneychangers' tables. He chased the animals out. There was no room to pray and give glory to God, his heavenly Father. Remember to keep the church holy. Make it a pleasant place to pray and read the scriptures. It is okay to sell things in the marketplace, but not in the church sanctuary. Do what you can to keep your church a place where you can give glory to God. It fills you with peace when the church is a peaceful place to pray.

Across

- 1. Jewish celebration
- 4. not alive
- 5. halt
- 6. discovered
- 10. not in
- 12. requirement
- 13. bankers with change
- 17. dad
- 18. give proof in court
- 19. eagerness
- 20. mark
- 21. furniture with flat top and legs
- 22. cattle
- 24. accept as true
- 29. recalled
- 31. Hebrews
- 34. ruin
- 35. dwelling
- 37. 365 days
- 38. animal for wool

Down

- 2. said
- 3. lines of twisted rope
- 4. pushed
- 7. followers
- 8. space

- 9. knew the meaning
- 23. small pigeons
- 31. savior of mankind
- 11. believe
- 25. synagogue
- 32. units of language
- 13. place to sell goods
- 26. saying
- 33. cord to hit animals
- 14. quality
- 27. physical part of a person
- 36. one less than seven
- 15. overturned
- 28. gave for a price
- 30. thirty-nine plus one
- 16. 24 hour periods
- 17. celebration