

B42 Take Up Your Cross, Mark 8:27-35,
Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus said to take up your cross and follow him. He suffered for you. It won't always be easy for you. However, Jesus will always be there for you. He will send the Holy Spirit with his bag of gifts to help you. Whatever you need to survive physically, emotionally, and spiritually, the Holy Spirit will give you. You'll receive knowledge, understanding, courage, right judgment, wisdom, reverence for God and fear of the Lord. You will grow in faith, hope, and love.

Across

- 2. misplaces
- 6. show how to do
- 9. told
- 10. said
- 11. refuse
- 12. Messiah
- 13. story of Christ's life
- 17. opposite of in
- 19. older people
- 22. opposite of down
- 23. writers
- 27. city in Macedonia
- 28. creator of heaven and earth
- 29. pain and suffering
- 30. planning
- 33. opposite of woman
- 34. many people together
- 36. followers in belief
- 38. ministers
- 40. region named after Julius Caesar
- 41. path
- 42. evil spirit

Down

- 1. not us
- 3. even now

- | | | |
|-------------------------|------------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| 4. not death | 15. searching | 26. smaller than a town |
| 5. beside | 16. men, women, and children | 29. arrive |
| 6. remove | 18. twisted | 31. right away |
| 7. near by | 20. fussed at | 32. go after |
| 8. any person | 21. John | 35. go above |
| 9. keep safe | 23. called | 37. head of |
| 11. more than one day | 24. give an answer | 39. second person of Holy Trinity |
| 14. not in a hidden way | 25. reason | |

B42 Take Up Your Cross, Mark 8:27-35,
Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

