

B49a Lazarus, Come Out, Mark 9:30-37,
Feast of All Saints

Jesus cried when he saw how sad Mary Magdalene and Martha were at their brother's death. He made him come back to life. When you are dead due to sin, Jesus forgives you. He died on the cross so that you can get into heaven. It will be a great day when you die and Jesus says to you, "Come into heaven with me."

Across

- 3. sobbing
- 5. that girl
- 7. allowed
- 8. Mary's sister
- 10. opposite of brother
- 11. weeped
- 13. burial place
- 15. remove
- 16. got
- 18. rock
- 20. man raised from the dead
- 21. not alive now
- 23. used to be
- 24. one person in the Blessed Trinity
- 28. many people in one place
- 29. had a strong liking for
- 30. fabric
- 31. attend
- 32. opposite of sister
- 36. a few
- 38. went from high to low
- 39. not home
- 40. look with your _____
- 42. upset
- 43. the Son of God
- 44. covered
- 45. unable to see
- 46. creator of heaven and earth

Down

- 1. Hebrews
- 2. cried
- 4. no, nor, non, _____
- 5. bad smell
- 6. putting into a grave
- 7. placed
- 9. on the other side
- 12. finished
- 13. relate
- 14. on account of
- 16. show gratefulness
- 17. aware of
- 19. opposite of in
- 21. strongly
- 22. strips
- 24. front of head
- 25. worried
- 26. think to be right
- 27. body part in shoe
- 28. opening in mountain
- 33. unsealed
- 34. lifted
- 35. more than one day
- 37. unlace
- 41. witnessed

