

C12 Blessed Are the Poor, Luke 6:17, 20-26, Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

When you go to heaven, you will have far greater riches than the richest of men on earth. Your soul is worth more than anything you have. Protect it with love and forgiveness. Then your reward will make you so happy that you will do flips!

Across

- 2. what tells how many
- 5. area
- 6. arrived
- 7. feel great sorrow
- 8. alike
- 9. followers of Jesus Christ
- 11. leave out
- 14. what a person or place or thing is called
- 15. did not lie down or sit up
- 16. person being talked to
- 17. gladness
- 18. path
- 20. filled up
- 23. opposite of up
- 24. cry
- 25. you see with your _____
- 26. smile and giggle
- 30. teller of God's wishes
- 31. handled
- 32. not true
- 33. sadness from suffering

Down

- 1. land ruled by king
- 3. highly favoured
- 4. men, women, and children
- 5. not poor
- 10. call bad names
- 12. many people in one place
- 13. 24 hour period
- 17. an area ruled by Romans during Christ's time
- 19. relatives who lived before you
- 20. pull in both directions to make it go farther
- 21. say
- 22. bad
- 27. creator of heaven and earth
- 28. opposite of love
- 29. jump high

C12 Blessed Are the Poor, Luke 6:17, 20-26,
Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

