

C17 The Prodigal Son, Luke 15:1-3, 11-32, Fourth Sunday in Lent

Each time you hurt God and come back to him, he rejoices and has a party for you! God puts his arms around you. He welcomes you back. He tells all the angels. That must be when we see the stars twinkling! He says, "I forgive you. I love you very much and am so glad you came back to be with me."

Across

- 1. need for food
- 4. brought back
- 5. give part of what you own to others
- 7. wasted
- 8. move in a pattern to music
- 9. second person of Holy Trinity
- 14. big dinner party
- 16. greets guests at door
- 19. kill an animal
- 20. touched with lips
- 23. money left to others after death
- 25. not found
- 27. did wrong
- 29. opposite of sister
- 30. one less than three

- 31. opposite of woman

Down

- 1. employed as a worker
- 2. rejoice
- 3. Son of God
- 5. pigs
- 6. furious

- 10. feel happiness
- 11. long periods of time
- 12. young cow
- 13. made fat
- 15. what is seen
- 16. people who work
- 17. worker inside a home

- 18. yet
- 21. noise
- 22. not alive
- 24. house and land
- 26. barn, house, and land to grow plants
- 28. chew and swallow food