

C28a I Am Not Worthy, Luke 7:1-10, Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

When you are feeling sad, remember that God is waiting for you at the gates of heaven. He stands by your bed and waits for you to say hello to him every morning. With his power inside you, you can learn well in school. You can have good friends. You will have money, food, and clothing to share with others. You are worthy because Jesus Christ died on the cross to save you. He made you worthy. Jesus took your sins away and healed you.
