

C31b Nativity of St. John the Baptist, Luke 1:57-66, 80

God had a good job for John the Baptist. He wanted him to warn the people to say they were sorry for their sins. God wanted his people to repent and change their evil ways. God has a purpose for you, too. He wants you to love him above all things and people, and love your neighbors as yourself. He wants you to make a difference in this world by choosing good over evil.
