

C35 Ask and You Shall Receive, Luke 11:1-13, Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

When you ask for something, God answers your prayers. It may not be the way you expect. He loves you and gives you what is best for you. When you ask for something for others, God will help them and help you, too.

Across

- 1. cot
 - 2. followers in belief
 - 4. try out
 - 7. zilch
 - 8. God's eternal home
 - 9. boy child
 - 11. country ruled by a king
 - 13. beg
 - 14. a hen lays an _____
 - 17. baked food from flour
 - 18. the Messiah
 - 23. raps
 - 24. necessities
 - 26. body part with fingers
 - 27. power source of life
 - 29. stop blaming
 - 31. fastened
 - 32. long-tailed Arachnid having a poisonous sting
 - 35. blessed
 - 36. friendly relationship
 - 38. guess
- Down
- 1. pester
 - 3. young people
 - 5. errors

- 6. dad
- 10. title
- 5. errors
- 6. dad
- 10. title
- 12. 12:00 at night
- 15. presents
- 16. evil
- 18. trip
- 19. hunt
- 20. topic
- 21. loan
- 22. home
- 25. way to get in or get out
- 28. get
- 29. water animal with scales and gills
- 30. person who comes to see you
- 33. agree freely
- 34. voice crying out in the desert
- 37. opposite of night