Be thankful for what you get. It may seem that others are getting more than you are. However, God gives you what you need. Sometimes one person needs more than another. It is up to him to decide what and when to give. He will listen to our requests, our little prayerful hints. However, it is really up to God as to what he gives to whom and why. If you want more, you must be thankful for what you have first. Unthankful ones may find themselves at the back of the line.
