God invites us to come to Heaven to spend eternal life with him at his big party. Your invitation reads: "Dear Child, Please come to heaven. I'm having the biggest party ever." Make time to listen to God's voice. When you think of doing something nice for someone, that's God talking to you. When you hear a voice say, "Don't hurt them," that's God talking. Take time to pray, "God, please help me find my way to heaven. I love you."
