Behold, your reward will be great in heaven! If you are poor now, you will be rich in Heaven. If you are hungry now, you will be filled up in Heaven. If you are sad now, you will be laughing in Heaven. If people hate you, and leave you out, and call you names because you believe in the Son of God, you will be loved and welcomed in heaven. Sometimes God gives us little rewards on earth, too. Think of all the things for which you are thankful. That's really nothing compared to the rewards you will get in heaven. God rewards us for loving him and sharing with others.
